Peaceful and Private Oasis

Rural oasis with carefully positioned north-facing two-storey mud brick home that blends natural, reclaimed and historical elements to create a unique warmth and ambience.

Enjoy open plan dining and lounge with cosy wood heating and garden and lake vistas from every window. The central kitchen is a cook's delight with electric and gas cooking, dishwasher and ample benchtops for all your family celebrations and entertaining. The AGA wood burning stove is fantastic for baking and slow Sunday roasts together.

There are three generously bright and airy bedrooms upstairs with wonderful views and light-filled spaces plus an additional study and storeroom. Downstairs is a fourth bedroom with built in robes and garden outlooks down to the ornamental lake.

The family bathroom with claw foot bath is perfect for soaking away the day and there is a functional laundry/mud room with external access to come in after a day in the garden.

Outside brick paved verandas and a vine covered west-facing pergola captures a wonderful sunset and extends to the meandering grounds with shade, native and fruit trees, including plum, cherry, apples and pear. Further infrastructure includes a carport and enclosed shedding with concrete floor, power and studio space, chicken coop and run, water tank and bore, enclosed kitchen garden with raised garden beds complete with seasonal veggies and established berry vines. The feature ornamental lake provides a wonderful habitat for native bird life and a picturesque outlook to enjoy year
