

34 High St, Lancefield

This is It! Investment Mixed-Use Opportunity in the Heart of Lancefield

With high-visibility and limited retail space, 34 High Street presents a unique opportunity to secure a high profile and income generating property in the heart of Lancefield's town centre - perfect for investors, owner-occupiers or those seeking a live-and-work setup.

This turnkey investment offers existing solid holding income with upside potential for additional rental yield to maximise your return.

Set on a prominent multi-frontage site, the property comprises:

- Retail Space 1 (approx. 197sqm) – Tenanted by the renowned Lancefield Op Shop, with consistent foot traffic and secure rental income. Features dual shop frontages and street access, bathroom facilities and generous floor area.
- Retail Space 2 (approx. 84sqm) – Formerly much-loved Red Door Books with a very loyal patronage over 18 years, this currently vacant retail space offers excellent scope for leasing or owner operation. The double frontage to High Street and flexible layout options, including bathroom and kitchenette facilities, will appeal to a range of businesses.
- 2-Bedroom Flat – Retaining character of the original building while offering modern comfort and updated finishes for a very comfortable lifestyle. Separate access provides versatility for a range of applications - an owner occupied in-town residence, short stay accommodation, long-term residential tenancy or commercial lease for a studio or gallery. Features include two bedrooms, separate lounge, updated bathroom
